

§ 334.7

are pursued, focusing on resource allocation and adjudication with cognizance of the essential civilian demand.

(g) Programs and plans developed by the departments and agencies under this guidance should be shared, as appropriate, with States, local governments and the private sector to provide a baseline for their development of supporting programs and plans.

§ 334.7 Reporting.

The Director of FEMA shall provide the President with periodic assessments of the Federal departments and agencies capabilities to respond to national security emergencies and periodic reports to the National Security Council on the implementation of the national security emergency preparedness policy. Pursuant to section 201(15) of Executive Order 12656, departments and agencies, as appropriate, shall consult and coordinate with the Director of FEMA to ensure that their activities and plans are consistent with current National Security Council guidelines and policies. An evaluation of the Federal departments and agencies participation in the graduated mobilization response program may be included in these reports.

§ 336.1 Purpose.

(a) This part establishes policy and procedural guidance to assist the Federal departments and agencies in the development of plans for the predesignation and assignment of nonindustrial facilities to ensure that emergency requirements can be met in time of a national security emergency.

(b) Specifically, this part provides:

(1) Policy guidance for the predesignation of nonindustrial facilities for essential needs in a national security emergency.

(2) Criteria guidance for the Federal departments and agencies to assess and select on a priority basis the nonindustrial facilities that are needed for national security emergencies.

(3) Planning guidance for the Federal departments and agencies to develop plans and programs for the usage of nonindustrial facilities and avoid or minimize disruptions of essential services during any national security emergency.

§ 336.2 Applicability and scope.

This part is applicable to all Federal departments and agencies, State and local governments and the private sector and provides policy and procedural guidance for carrying out the NIF program. The NIF program helps ensure our ability to mobilize essential nonindustrial facilities for Department of Defense (DOD) and essential civilian needs in the event of a national security emergency or contingency.
